

Soon, My family and I will be moving into a new house. I will move with my mom, dad, brother and sister.

Our new house will be different than our old one.

In our new house, I will have a room with my things. I will also sleep in my own bed.

Moving is a lot of work. We will pack all of our things in boxes to move when mom and dad say that it is time to pack.

