

Warehouse Associate

We have an outstanding opportunity to share!

The Warehouse Associate ensures that our customers receive accurate parts in a timely and safe manner while maintaining the warehouse floor.

Key Responsibilities

- Picking, packing and preparing shipments of customer orders accurately within the same day with a 98% accuracy rate.
- Load and unload delivery trucks daily.
- Utilize collaboration by sharing information and skills, assisting other team members, and adaptable to support other departments with meeting the needs of the business.
- Keep a clean and safe work area.
- Must participate in all required safety training as offered.
- Utilize company Email servers, internet, and shipment tracking software when needed

Position Requirements

- High School Diploma or equivalent combination of education and experience.
- Able to stand for more than half a given shift or Workday, in addition to walking/stooping/kneeling/climbing.
- Ability to lift or maneuver 40 lbs and use tools and equipment for products that weigh up to 100 lbs.
- Knowledgeable of hazardous materials shipping procedures.
- Detail and Safety oriented. Comfortable with typical warehouse and shipping methods and tools. Works well in a team environment.
- Experience operating a forklift preferred.
- Must communicate timely and accurately with upper management and internal departments such as Field Service, Customer Service, Finance, Bids and Contracts, HR, IT.
- Must build and maintain positive relationships with vendors who interact with RAME facilities.
- Exhibits a need to succeed by setting personal goals to outperform company metrics

Why is This Position an Attractive Opportunity?

This position provides the opportunity to develop personal and professional skills by supporting leading-edge diagnostic equipment to world-class medical entities. We look forward to considering you for the team!

Danaher Corporation and all Danaher Companies are equal opportunity employers that evaluate qualified applicants without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, marital status, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or other characteristics protected by law. Employee benefits include health, dental, vision, 401K, vacation and Employee Assistance Program to name a few.

Radiometer America Inc.
810 Sharon Drive
Westlake, Ohio 44145

Please send resume to Mkishmarton@radiometeramerica.com